MORPHEUS™

"Morpheus": a collection dedicated to Morpheus, the messenger of Gods' dreams, endowed with the extraordinary ability to appear in sleep in ever-changing forms.

As its name suggests, the Greek word "morphè" means "form" as an act of shaping dreams. And it was the dreams themselves that inspired the creation of this enchanting collection, imbued with femininity and mystery. Those dreams without which our life would lose meaning, the desires towards which we tend every morning to our awakening from deep night sleep.

Sleep, as a journey through the boundaries of reality and imagination where the limit of reason enters into relationship with the subconscious. A journey that leads us to live impossible experiences that in the dream become more real than reality itself. It is here that Morpheus takes shape by opening the door between the rational and the unconscious. A curtain that falls on the ordinary vision of the world and at the same time opens another in an imaginary dimension; so the dream comes to life to guide us in a ups and downs of emotions that disappear with the arrival of the morning.

This collection defined by products with sinuous, enveloping and soft shapes is born from the desire to create an ideal environment, a romantic and welcoming alcove suitable to accompany our night journey towards the most remote borders of our fantasy, towards unexplored worlds, towards the realization of our most daring wishes. Because on our awakening we may have the illusion that we are still living in our dreams.

*Moments in motion.
Infinite light moments that change, sway, fly.
A bright wake in the night, iridescent transparencies crossing a dark sea.*

*They are dreams come true,
unspoken wishes, a second of freedom.
Then, calm.*

*A night in the palace.
Music, footsteps, the whirling of iridescent clothing. And smiles, lights, enchanting moments.*

*Then the announcement, the waiting,
the solemn moment. The room bows to the future that enters.*
